

TACL Leadership Identity and Development Camp

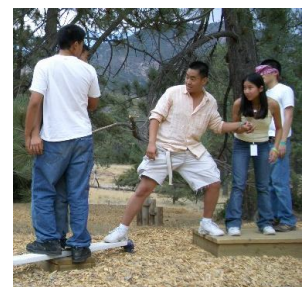

Come join us August 5-9 in the beautiful San Jacinto woods as we host our annual Taiwanese Americans Citizens League Leadership, Identity, and Development (TACL-LID) Summer Conference! This exciting camp will offer plenty of fun activities and useful workshops while learning about Taiwan. Registration costs $220 if you sign up before July 15 and $270 if you register after.

Activities include:

- Cultural lessons about Taiwanese food, language, history, and current issues
- College workshop starring Kevin Lee, founder of KL Education and graduate of Yale University and Harvard Law School
- Exciting Ropes courses to build leadership and self-confidence
- Guest speakers featuring Jay Chen, the youngest governing board member of the Hacienda-La Puente Unified School District, and a veteran of similar Taiwanese American camps on the east coast
- Skits, performances, group competitions, and team-building exercises to help you bond and make lifelong friends
